Beware of Unofficial Solicitors Offering Services in Conjunction with ATSSA's 2020 Convention & Traffic Expo

BEWARE OF ATTENDEE LIST AND SHOW DIRECTORY LISTING OFFERS

Some organizations are sending solicitations to various entities in the traffic safety industry, purporting to supply the ATSSA Convention & Traffic Expo attendee list or offering a show guide/directory listing. Please be advised that the show list is proprietary and confidential and is only accessible to ATSSA Convention & Traffic Expo exhibitors pursuant to a contract with the official ATSSA Convention & Traffic Expo registration vendor, Eshow.

DON'T LET HOUSING PIRATES PLAY YOU

Scam housing companies are actively approaching ATSSA Convention & Traffic Expo exhibitors and attendees with fraudulent offerings of hotel rooms at significant discounts. Lured by highly attractive rates, exhibitors and attendees fall prey to these imposters losing significant deposits, discovering hidden costs and upfront charges, or being bait-and-switched to hotel rooms they never booked. These companies are in no way affiliated with ATSSA or our official hotel block. They troll the internet and association websites looking for annual events and then gain access to email addresses for direct contact or to draw attendees to their websites posing as the sanctioned housing provider. Do not give them your credit card information!
